BUILDING TRUST IN THE PUBLIC RECORD

managing information and data for government and community

PUBLIC RELEASE
SCHEDULE 2

RELEASED BY 30 JUNE 2022

PUBLIC RELEASE SCHEDULE 2: RELEASED BY 30 JUNE 2022

The Building trust in the public record: managing information and data for government and community policy is in place from January 2021 to the end of 2025. Throughout the policy period, the National Archives is providing products and advice to help agencies implement the policy actions and meet its strategic objectives.

To support agency planning we are providing yearly public release schedules that include the expected delivery dates for policy advice.

The public release schedule highlights new, updated and existing National Archives products and advice (resources) that will help your agency meet each of the 17 policy actions.

Any changes to the current public release schedule will be communicated through the Government Agencies Information Network (GAIN). If you work for an Australian Government agency and are not a member of GAIN, please register for the GAIN mailing list.

This second Public Release Schedule runs from 1st July 2021 to 30th June 2022 and includes existing National Archives resources and those already delivered under the first public release schedule. It also features new advice on system assessments, transferring digital content to National Archives and, monitoring and reporting to help agencies continue their policy implementation.

FUTURE PUBLIC RELEASE SCHEDULES

The public release schedule for the 2022–23 financial year will be released by 30 June 2022. It will be developed following the same process of consultation and feedback for the first and second schedules.

We invite agencies and professional associations to share any additional tools or guidance they think can be used to help implement the policy. Please email your suggestions and general topics for discussion to information.management@naa.gov.au.
